Website & App Development for Beginners

A hands-on course that teaches complete beginners to build a real, live website using WordPress and the free Elementor page builder; plus a simple mobile app using the no-code tool Glide, without writing a line of code. Every lesson walks through the actual screens, buttons, and menus of real tools, not just theory.